

Service intervals

Service schedule intervals are dependent upon the kilometres/miles covered by the car.

If the car covers on average less than 12 000 kilometres (7500 miles) per 6 months it must be serviced on a seasonal basis i.e. every 6 months.

If the car covers over 12 000 kilometres (7500 miles) per 6 months it must be serviced on a kilometres/mileage basis i.e. every 12 000 kilometres (7500 miles).
