

Non-standard Number Plates

Road User Services offers customers a variety of non-standard number plates. They may be ordered at any of the Canberra Connect Shopfronts. Plates are available in tin and in plastic with a range of colours. Logos and slogans can be added to plastic plates for an additional fee. Gift certificates are also available for non-standard number plates. The RTA will refuse applications for a plate where it considers that the content would cause offence to a reasonable person.
