Long Run Two

With spring almost in the air, Eastern Creek and All British Day just around the corner, it's time to tune up your car with a run to Bundanoon. Join us on a smooth and easy drive south, just over 150 kms. from the Sydney GPO. Here is the perfect drive to have your Bentley burbling, your Royce humming or your other car singing sweetly in time for the Spring Racing Carnival!!

- Date: Sunday 5th August
- Meeting point: Mobil Service Station - South bound side Hume Highway, Pheasants Nest at 10 am for a 10.30 departure. Tea and coffee and bathroom facilities are available on site.

We will travel south through Mittagong and Moss Vale to meet up at the Bundanoon Hotel for a counter lunch at your own expense - followed by a wander around the historic township. <http://www.bundanoonhotel.com.au/>

- Cost: Lunch at your own expense.
- RSVP: By Sunday 29th July so I can give the final number to the hotel, please. Email president@nsw.rroc.org.au
- There will be an award to the person travelling the longest distance to attend - please record your mileage.
